

1

Once per game, you may steal one treasure from the supply before shares are allocated.

2

Once per game, you may discard one treasure from the supply before shares are allocated.

3

Once per game, you may become the captain and reallocate shares to all characters before voting.

4

Once per game, you may swap allocated shares with one other character before voting.

5

Once per game, you may claim your allocated share regardless of how you voted.

6

Once per game, you may participate in a mutiny regardless of how you voted.

Before voting each round, give the mermaid to another character. That character gets two votes this round and you get none.

7

Once per game, you may force one other character to reveal all of their secret treasures.

Before each round, give the parrot to another character. Then, you may peek at one of that character's secret treasures.

